Dear Mr. Fields:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of 16 February asking me to be one of the speakers at your "Success Motivation Seminar" in Houston on April 2.

I am sorry to say, however, that my schedule is extremely tight for the forthcoming months and hence I will not be able to accept your invitation.

I regret that I cannot be with you and the group of high school students in your district who will attend the Seminar, but I am sure you will understand my situation.

I wish you much success with the Seminar and, again, many thanks for your kind words and for thinking of me.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

Mr. William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

On Friday, April 2, 1982, I plan to conduct a "Success Motivation Seminar" for some 300 high school-aged youngsters in my 8th Congressional District.

It goes without saying that it would be my privilege and honor to have you as one of the featured speakers. Your presence here in Houston would add significantly to the success of this event.

While I realize this is short notice, I would appreciate it very much if you could find time in your busy schedule to be in Houston for this event. If you can accept and there are travel costs and/or an honorarium involved, please let me know. My office will work with you on such details.

Upon acceptance, I will be back in touch with you regarding the site and time you will speak.

Again, your success gained through hard work in the American system, and your rare leadership qualities, will be most inspirational to the young people in attendance.

Thanking you in advance and with warmest regards, I remain

Sincerely,

Jack Fields
